

CBAA Code of Conduct

Player's Code of Conduct

1. I will demonstrate good sportsmanship during wins and losses.
2. I will not physically, verbally, or emotionally attack another player or coach.
3. I will refrain from using inappropriate language.
4. I will treat all players, officials, coaches, parents and fans with respect.
5. I will attend practices or notify the coach if I am unable to attend.
6. I am here to learn the sport.

Player's Signature

Date

Parent's Code of Conduct

1. I will communicate with the coaches at the appropriate time and not during practice or games.
2. I will support my child by serving as a volunteer within the CBAA organization.
3. I will demonstrate good sportsmanship.
4. I will ask my child to treat other players, coaches, fans, and officials with respect, and I will set an example for them by doing the same.
5. I will refrain from using drugs, alcohol, and foul language at all youth events.

Parent's Signature

Date

Consequences of Code of Conduct Violations

Violation of the CBAA Code of Conduct will be taken seriously and can and will result in suspensions and possible terminations with the CBAA. The board will reserve right to suspend a player or parent following a meeting with the player and/or the parent. The following consequences will be used as punishment for violations:

First Violation= Warning

Second Violation= Suspension from a game

Third Violation=Removal from the team

Fourth Violation=Removal from the CBAA organization

Violations will run from sport to sport and will be cumulative.